

PRELIMINARY PROGRAM – CET MEMBERS’ DAY 2019

08:30 - 08:45	REGISTRATION	UWA Business School - Wesfarmers Lecture Theatre
08:45 - 09:15	Steve Rowins	Director’s overview of 2019 CET activities
09:15 - 09:45	Helen McFarlane	The San Vicente MVT deposit, Peru: Thrust-related Zn-Pb mineralization during the Andean Orogeny
09:45 - 10:20	Daniel Wedge & Tom Horrocks	Fusion methods for strata interpretation and geochemical interpolation
10:20 - 11:00	MORNING TEA / POSTER DISPLAY
11:00 - 11:30	Mark Jessell & Nicolas Thebaud	Key learnings from WAXI to find gold in NE South America (SAXI)
11:30 - 11:45	Mark Jessell	Loop/MinEx/DARE update
11:45 - 12:15	Marcelo Godefroy Rodríguez	The multiple sulfur isotope architecture of the Golden Mile and Mount Charlotte deposits, Western Australia
12:15 - 12:45	Karen Lloyd Curtin University	The Market Risk Premium Problem: Gold Project Equity Investor’s Expectations
12:45 - 13:45	LUNCH / POSTER DISPLAY
13:45 - 14:15	Laura Petrella	Colloidal gold transport: a key to high-grade gold mineralization
14:15 - 14:45	Eunjoo Choi	PGE-Au signature of alkaline magmas from the Yilgarn Craton: insights into the mantle fertility
14:45 - 15:15	Stefano Caruso	Sulfur sources in orogenic gold deposits: a new perspective from the background
15:15 - 15:55	AFTERNOON TEA / POSTER DISPLAY
15:55 - 16:45	Edward Rigg ARGONAUT	Keynote Address: “What makes an exploration project click? A stockbroker’s view”
16:45 - 17:00	Steve Rowins	Closing Remarks
17:00 - 18:00	SUNDOWNER	